

Learn Vocabulary - Words Often Confused Worksheets

Words often confused: Worksheet-1

Given below are exercises on words that are often confused. In each of the sentences below, there is one word that is misspelt. Underline the wrongly spelt word, and write the right word in the space given.

1. O. Henry was a brilliant writer. He wrote several great storeys.
2. The school principle is addressing the students at the morning assembly today.
3. I am not sure weather this proposal will be accepted or not.
4. Please bring your own stationary when you come for the essay competition.
5. My friend was borne into a very wealthy family.
6. I seem to loose my car keys as soon as I find it.
7. My friend was badly effected by the news of her mother's illness.
8. Sam poured over his notes on the eve of his examination.
9. We can excess this building by the south gate.
10. I love to walk on grass bear foot.

Answers

1. O. Henry was a brilliant writer. He wrote several great storeys. (stories)
2. The school principle is addressing the students at the morning assembly today. (principal)
3. I am not sure weather this proposal will be accepted or not. (whether)
4. Please bring your own stationary when you come for the essay competition. (stationery)

-
5. My friend was borne into a very wealthy family. (born)
 6. I seem to loose my car keys as soon as I find it. (lose)
 7. My friend was badly effected by the news of her mother's illness. (affected)
 8. Sam poured over his notes on the eve of his examination. (pored)
 9. We can excess this building by the south gate. (access)
 10. I love to walk on grass bear foot. (bare)

Words often confused: Worksheet-2

Given below are exercises on words that are easily confused. Choose the right option from the words given in brackets, to fill in the blanks in each of the following sentences.

1., the books cost us around $100. (all together/ altogether)
2. I take for breakfast every day. (cereal/serial)
3. My teacher me on my achievement in the examination. (complemented/complimented)
4. Theis meeting today to decide on the matter. (council/counsel)
5. If you want to buy, you have to pay: There is no other
- (alternative/alternate)
6. What would you like for ? (desert/dessert)
7. Shall we change the topic of conversation? You seem to be
- (uninterested/disinterested)
8. There were of people in the stadium to watch the match. (hordes/hoardes)
9. He goes from house to house household items. (peddling/pedaling)
10. When we read a book, we must read its
- (foreword/forward)

Answers

1. Altogether, the books cost us around $100.
2. I take cereal for breakfast every day.
3. My teacher complimented me on my achievement in the examination.
4. The council is meeting today to decide on the matter.
5. If you want to buy, you have to pay: There is no other alternative.
6. What would you like for dessert?
7. Shall we change the topic of conversation? You seem to be uninterested.
8. There were hordes of people in the stadium to watch the match.
9. He goes from house to house peddling household items.
10. When we read a book, we must read its foreword.