

English Grammar – Sentence Types

Beginner Worksheets

Worksheet - 1 (easy)

Copy the sentences in the blanks given below. Determine the type of sentence each one is, and write down. You can choose the type of sentence from the box.

Declarative sentence | Imperative sentence | Interrogative sentence | Exclamatory sentence

Sentences

Types

.....
.....
.....
.....

.....
.....
.....
.....

Answers

I don't like my ice cream.

Sam, please give yours to me.

Ah! How delicious!

Why don't you eat your ice-cream?

Declarative sentence

Imperative sentence

Exclamatory sentence

Interrogatory sentence

---

Worksheet - 2 (medium)

Write down the type of sentence against each sentence given below.

1. What are you doing now?
2. What a pleasant surprise!
3. Who is at the door?
4. I have a fever.
5. Please close the door.
6. She is my friend.
7. Please do not make any noise.
8. I am very hungry.
9. What a beautiful flower!
10. Come back here.

Answers

- |                                  |               |
|----------------------------------|---------------|
| 1. What are you doing now?       | interrogative |
| 2. What a pleasant surprise!     | Exclamatory   |
| 3. Who is at the door?           | interrogative |
| 4. I have a fever.               | Declarative   |
| 5. Please close the door.        | Imperative    |
| 6. She is my friend.             | declarative   |
| 7. Please do not make any noise. | imperative    |
| 8. I am very hungry.             | declarative   |
| 9. What a beautiful flower!      | exclamatory   |
| 10. Come back here.              | imperative    |

Worksheet - 3 (difficult)

Use the different types of sentences, to talk about the kitten given below. You have one example here of a flower.

This is a beautiful flower. (declarative)
What a beautiful flower! (exclamatory)
Please don't pick this flower. (imperative)
Can I pick this flower? (imperative)

