

English Writing

Intermediate Worksheets

Writing in English

Learning to write accurately in the English language is a skill that is surely an asset for anyone, in their job as well as in the other fields of life. Writing in English is a skill. Therefore, it can be learnt by anyone who is willing to practice writing regularly, using authentic and effective study material.

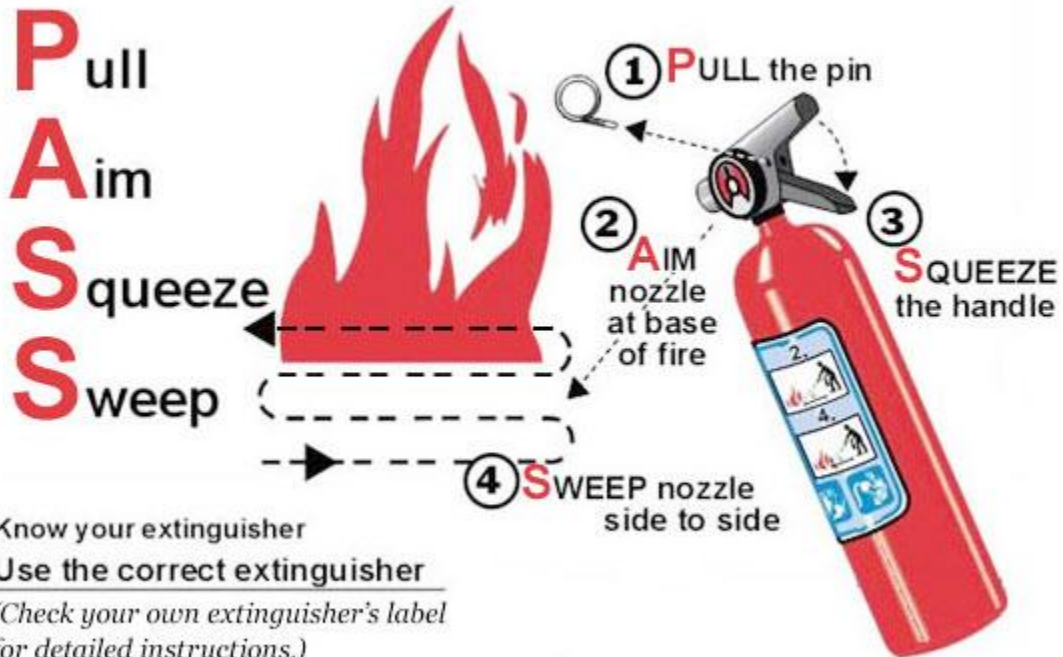

Here are worksheets that help you acquire writing skills in the English language. These are guided writing activities, and hence most of the key vocabulary is given to you.

After you attempt these worksheets, if you would like a feedback on your writing, you may submit your Word file as an attachment here. Our English language specialists will give you a feedback on your writing.

Worksheet – 1

Using the information below, explain how a fire extinguisher is used. You may add suitable information of your own. Write about 100-150 words.

To operate an extinguisher:

Know your extinguisher
Use the correct extinguisher
(Check your own extinguisher's label for detailed instructions.)

Image courtesy: county-fire.com

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

A series of ten horizontal dotted lines are spaced evenly down the page, providing a guide for handwriting practice.