Mary Had A Little Lamb

"Mary had a little lamb, little lamb, little lamb, Marry had a little lamb whose fleece was white as snow.

And everywhere that Mary went Mary went, Mary went, everywhere that Mary went

The lamb was sure to go.

He followed her to school one day,
school one day, school one day,
He followed her to school one day,
Which was against the rules,
It made the children laugh and play,
laugh and play, laugh and play,
It made the children laugh and play,
To see a lamb at school.

And so the teacher
turned it out,
turned it out, turned it out,
And so the teacher
turned it out,
But still it lingered near,
He waited patiently
about,
ly about, ly about,
He waited patiently
about,
Till Mary did appear.

"Why does the lamb love Mary so?"
love Mary so?" love Mary so?"
"Why does the lamb love Mary so?"
The eager children cried.
"Why, Mary loves the lamb, you know," lamb, you know," lamb, you know,"
"Why, Mary loves the lamb, you know,"
The teacher did reply."

More about 'Mary Had A Little Lamb'

Mary Had a Little Lamb is a nursery rhyme that is very silent and involves the connection between a child and her pet. It is concerning a young girl Mary whose little lamb accompanies her everywhere- even to school one day! The rhyme leads to the surprise of the teachers and the classmates but highlights the innocence of childhood and love of children towards animals. The poem is anchored on a factual account of the 19 th century America and as such it is not just a rhyme but a history as well. Its musical stylistic formation helps the kids to develop vocabulary, sounds and stories. In addition to the words children are taught empathy, responsibility and animal care. Pets and goodness are some of the other talks that are usually introduced by the parents through this rhyme. Mary Had a Little Lamb is considered to be one of the most popular children songs in the world with its simple melody and the message of hope it gives.
